Pastor's Column/Carta del Párroco

As we gather on this Good Shepherd Sunday, our hearts are drawn to the comforting image of Jesus, our loving shepherd, who lays down his life for his sheep. In John 10:11-18, Jesus declares himself as the Good Shepherd, contrasting his selfless devotion with the hired hand who flees in the face of danger. This profound love is echoed in 1 John 3:1-2, where we are reminded of the depth of God's love for us, calling us his children.

In reflecting on these passages, we are invited to contemplate the tender care of Jesus, our Good Shepherd. Just as a shepherd knows his flock and is willing to sacrifice everything for their well-being, so too does Jesus intimately know each of us. He knows our joys and our struggles, our fears and our hopes. He walks alongside us in every moment of our lives, never abandoning us, even in our darkest hours.

Moreover, Jesus's closeness to us transcends all boundaries. He doesn't merely watch from a distance; he enters into the messiness of our lives, sharing in our joys and sorrows. His presence is a source of comfort and strength, a reminder that we are never alone. No matter how lost or broken we may feel, Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is always there, guiding us back to the safety of his fold.

Central to the image of the Good Shepherd is the profound act of self-sacrifice. Jesus willingly lays down his life for us, demonstrating the depth of his love and the extent of his commitment to our salvation. His death on the cross is the ultimate expression of this love, a sacrifice that brings us forgiveness, redemption, and eternal life.

As we journey through the Easter season, let us meditate on the immense love of the Good Shepherd. Let us open our hearts to receive his grace and mercy, trusting in his unfailing care. May we, like sheep who hear the voice of their shepherd, follow Jesus faithfully, knowing that in his embrace, we find true peace and abundant life. Amen.

Blessings,
Fr. Julio Lam

Al reunirnos en este Domingo del Buen Pastor, nuestros corazones contemplan la reconfortante imagen de Jesús, nuestro amado pastor, quien entrega su vida por sus ovejas. En el Evangelio según San Juan 10:11-18, Jesús se declara a sí mismo como el Buen Pastor, contrastando su devoción desinteresada con el asalariado que huye ante el peligro. Este profundo amor se refleja también en 1 Juan 3:1-2, donde se nos recuerda la grandeza del amor de Dios por nosotros, llamándonos sus hijos.

Al reflexionar sobre estos pasajes, se nos invita a meditar acerca del cuidado tierno de Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor. Así como un pastor conoce a su rebaño y está dispuesto a sacrificar todo por su bienestar, Jesús nos conoce íntimamente a cada uno de nosotros. Él conoce nuestras alegrías y nuestras luchas, nuestros miedos y nuestras esperanzas. Él camina a nuestro lado en cada momento de nuestras vidas, nunca nos abandona, incluso en nuestras horas más oscuras.

Además, la cercanía de Jesús con nosotros sobrepasa cualquier límite. Él no simplemente observa desde la distancia; sino que él entra en el desorden de nuestras vidas, compartiendo nuestras alegrías y tristezas. Su presencia es una fuente de consuelo y fortaleza, un recordatorio de que nunca estamos solos. No importa cuán perdidos o rotos nos sintamos, Jesús el Buen Pastor, siempre está allí, guiándonos de regreso a la seguridad de su rebaño.

Central en la imagen de Jesús el Buen Pastor está el profundo acto de su propio sacrificio. Jesús entrega voluntariamente su vida por nosotros, demostrando la profundidad de su amor y la extensión de su compromiso con nuestra salvación. Su muerte en la cruz es la expresión última de este amor, un sacrificio que nos trae perdón, redención y vida eterna.

Mientras avanzamos en el camino de la Pascua, meditemos en el inmenso amor de Jesús el Buen Pastor. Abramos nuestros corazones para recibir su gracia y misericordia, confiando en su cuidado infalible. Que nosotros, como ovejas que escuchando la voz de su Jesús, nuestro pastor, lo sigamos fielmente, sabiendo que en su cercanía encontramos verdadera paz y vida abundante. Amén.
